

This is a reminder- we have a new website – the old site will be going away. As of 11/11/24 all updated will come from the new site. We think you will find this easier to navigate. You will have the option of sending many forms electronically- no need to print/fill in and send!!

<https://www.highmeadowcooperative.com/>

I will also post a link on the original site to send you to the new one.

Happy Halloween- Enjoy this treat, not tricks involved
